Legal Consultation Request

17th Annual Grandparents and Relatives
Raising Children Legal Consultation Request

Volunteer attorneys will be available at the conference to provide free consultations about guardianship, custody, child support and related legal issues to grandparents and other relatives raising children. The consultations are limited to 30 minutes, and the attorneys will only be able to provide information and advice. They are not making a commitment to represent you in court on any matter by providing this consultation. They may be able to help you interpret any legal documents you may have, assess your current legal status as a caregiver and offer advice regarding legal steps that you could take.

There will be a limited number of consultations available. Appointments will be assigned based upon when your request for a consultation is received.

To have a free consultation with an attorney you need to complete this form and send it in today. When all of the time slots are filled, you may be placed on a waiting list. The sooner you send in your request, the more likely we will be able to help you. This form must be completed and returned through the mail with your conference registration in order for your request to be considered.
