FACULTY: For those who chose a LivingWell plan you need to complete your LivingWell promise? It can be done one of two ways: Vitality Check (biometric screening) or the online Health Assessment (same as last year). The deadline to complete the LivingWell Promise is before May 1.

When you are in the teacher’s lounge be sure to check out this months “FOCUS ON THE FACULTY”. This month our focus is on Keaton Belcher, Rebekka Bess, Todd Colvin, John DeAtley, Tony Hoess, Debbie Jeans, Matt Phillips, Carolyn Reid, and Tessa Wilson.

As I often mention, copyright law forbids us to show entire movies to groups even if we are using those movies for curriculum requirements; however, we do subscribe to a license that allows us to show many movies without violating copyright law. The license pertains to certain studios. The APPROVED studios are listed below:
W. Disney Pictures          Warner Bros.
Touchstone Pictures          NBC Universal
Hollywood Pictures          Sony Pictures
Columbia Pictures            Lionsgate
Tri-Star Pictures           Summit Entertainment
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer         Picturehouse
United Artists              New Line Cinema
Miramax

Fair use does allow for a small fraction of movies to be used without licensing issues; five to ten minutes is usually a safe bet.

Faculty members remember to turn in your gift fund donations to Sheila Wright.
